

ONE EA organised ONE Family Fun Day with Hong Kong Maritime Museum

18 November 2019, Hong Kong – Supported sustainable development of local maritime organisation, and introduced shipping industry to the public, Ocean Network Express (East Asia) Ltd. (ONE EA), in partnership with Hong Kong Maritime Museum (HKMM), organised ONE Family Fun Day on 17 November 2019, the first day of Hong Kong Maritime Week 2019, with a variety of family programmes and activities offered for visitors to join for free.

Mr Shunichiro Mizukami, Region Head of East Asia and Managing Director of ONE EA, said, “Shipping industry touches on every part of our lives. ONE recognises the importance of ensuring the communities in which we live and work are empowered and supported. We are pleased to support HKMM to organise this meaningful event together to raise public awareness of shipping industry and encourage family engagement.”

Mr Richard Wesley, Director of the Hong Kong Maritime Museum, said, “HKMM actively engages in education and public programming offered for schools, community groups and families, with Family Fun Day as the highlighted event, attracting about 130,000 visitors annually. Being the co-organiser of Hong Kong Maritime Week, we would like to express our gratitude to ONE EA for sponsoring free access to the museum, support us to introduce local maritime history and development to more people especially children and youngsters.”

As a global liner company, ONE has leveraged core business by providing transportation support of goods to communities in need, and continues to contribute towards meaningful environmental and educational activities. ## About Hong Kong Maritime Museum

The Hong Kong Maritime Museum (HKMM) was founded by members of the Hong Kong Shipowners Association committed to helping the Hong Kong community and visitors to Hong Kong explore the city's unique maritime heritage. HKMM was named as a TripAdvisor Travellers' Choice Top 10 Museum in China in 2017, and is an independent, non-profit registered charity supported by the shipping industry, the business community, private individuals and the Hong Kong SAR Government. HKMM is a cultural institution that tells the story of trade and maritime history in Hong Kong and the Pearl River Delta, and the vital roles ships and the sea play in our past, present and future.

The Museum opened its door to the public at Murray House in Stanley in 2005 and relocated to Central Pier No. 8 in the heart of the Central Harbour Waterfront in 2013. Today the Museum displays about 1,000 objects in 15 galleries, attracting about 130,000 visitors annually. HKMM also houses various event spaces, resource centre, a roof-top social enterprise café, and gift shop that contribute to visitors' experiences. HKMM engages with the community of Hong Kong by actively engaging in education and public programming offered to schools, adults, community groups and families.
