

Executive - Trade Management (Pricing & Space Management - Africa)

Responsibilities:

- Responsible for daily pricing / marketing and space management function of Africa products;
- Execute daily rate quotation and space management in line with trade direction to maximize the space utilization and revenue;
- Communicate closely with sales team to ensure lifting and contribution targets are reached;
- Collect & analyze forecast and marketing data to implement trade policies & direction under manager's supervision;
- Assist in preparing marketing reports and weekly utilization reports;
- Perform ad-hoc projects and other duties as requested.

Requirements:

- Diploma or Degree holder preferably in Shipping / Logistics;
- 2 years of experience in shipping field is preferable;
- Good analytical, communication skills, detail-minded and attentive to figures;
- Good team player and able to work independently;
- Proficiency in using Microsoft Office;
- Good command in spoken and written English and Chinese. Proficiency in Putonghua is an advantage.

When working with us you can expect:

- Stable employment in a dynamic, international organisation that is one of the leaders in the market.
- Wide benefit package including medical insurance for you and your family members, life insurance, annual leave, paid sick leave and others.
- Great work atmosphere, interactive, encouraging, friendly and supportive team and culture, and have chance to join Corporate Social Responsibility activities.
- Spacious, relaxing and comfortable office in Two Harbour Square, Kwun Tong with fantastic sea view.

If you believe your skills and competencies could be of an advantage for Ocean Network Express, please send your application letter with detailed resume and expected salary to eas.rhq.hr.job@one-line.com.